

WILSON RENOMINATED WITH MARSHALL HIS MATE

INCUMBENTS OF HIGH OFFICES CHOSEN AGAIN

Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall Are Nominated By Acclamation for President and Vice-President

ONE DISSENTING VOTE ON WILSON

So Certain Was Nomination of Marshall, Senator Kern Discarded Long Prepared Speech and Only Mentions Candidate

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] COLISEUM, June 15.—President Wilson and Vice President Marshall were nominated by acclamation tonight by the democratic national convention; the ticket being completed four minutes before Friday.

Contrary to expectations, however, the convention did not finish its work because the platform was not ready and it will meet again at 11 o'clock Friday morning.

It was announced in the convention that the sub-committee drafting the platform had finished its work, but that the entire resolutions committee was not assembled to pass upon it and it was not known when that could be done. President Wilson's own plank charging conspiracy among some foreign-born citizens for the benefit of foreign powers and denouncing any political party which benefits and not repudiating such. A section was incorporated in the platform just as the president himself has sent it from Washington. It was understood that the president insisted that the plank should be put in the platform the way he had written it.

There never was any doubt of President Wilson's nomination tonight but there was a possibility that some vice presidential booms might be brought out in opposition to Marshall. They melted away, however, when the convention got in session and as soon as President Wilson's nomination had been made.

To President Wilson's nomination there was only one dissenting vote, Robert Emmett Burke of Illinois, who came to the convention announcing he was opposed to the president.

When Judge Wescott of New Jersey had placed the president in re-nomination and the nomination had been seconded by former Governor Harmon of Ohio and Governor Stuart of Virginia, the delegates wanted to wait no longer and cried "vote, vote."

On motion of Senator Hughes of New Jersey, the rules were suspended and no ballots whatever were taken. (Continued on Page Five)

Is Again Running Mate of President

Vice-President Marshall

President Wilson Admits News Of His Renomination

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, June 15.—President Wilson arranged to receive news of his re-nomination tonight in company with several relatives and friends at the White House. Special wire facilities kept the president in close touch with every development at the St. Louis convention.

Prior to tonight's session of the convention the president was in communication with administration leaders at St. Louis on details of the platform and on organization details. His decision to have Vance C. McCord

Russians Are Making Prisoners Of Thousands Of Austrians

IS AGAIN CHOICE OF HIS PARTY

President Woodrow Wilson.

CONVENTION IN NIGHT SESSION DETERMINES TO NOMINATE BEFORE ADJOURNMENT TAKEN

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] COLISEUM, ST. LOUIS, June 15.—The democratic national convention convened at 7:15 o'clock tonight with the announced purpose of remaining in continued session until it had re-nominated President Wilson and Vice President Marshall, adopted a platform and transacted all other business that brought the representatives of the party to St. Louis.

All the vice presidential booms except that of Governor Major of Missouri had been effectively killed off by President Wilson's announcement that he desired the re-nomination of Mr. Marshall.

There apparently was no doubt that the re-nomination of Wilson and Marshall would be made unanimous. The platform committee remained at work drawing up the declaration of principles so that it might be brought in before adjournment was taken and the work of the convention might be finished. A session lasting well into Friday morning was assured.

Tonight for the first time since the convention began the big hall was completely filled. Since the distribution of tickets began the admission coupons have been shuttled about in a confusion of pasteboard and badge speculation. While hundreds of people have been clamoring at the doors for admission empty rows of seats have stretched through the galleries because ticket speculators who had obtained possession of the prized tickets were holding them for large prices.

The convention's sudden decision today to proceed with nominations and finish tonight instead of prolonging the session through tomorrow and probably into Saturday as had been planned let down the bars and the speculators unloaded their tickets. The big Coliseum was packed to the roof as a result. The speculators were unprepared for the sudden order to bring the convention to a close and it is believed their losses were heavy.

Stirred by the speeches by the temporary and permanent chairmen, both making President Wilson's peaceful conduct of the country's foreign relations the keynote, the convention only awaited the moment of balloting to re-nominate Wilson and Marshall with the slogan of "Peace, Preparedness and Prosperity."

When the gavel fell calling to-night's session to order, John W. Wescott of New Jersey who nominated President Wilson at the Baltimore convention, was ready on the floor to deliver the speech of re-nomination; Senator Kern of Indiana to re-nominate Vice President Marshall and John H. Atwood of Missouri to deliver the special speech nominating Governor Major for the vice presidency.

While the convention was assembling it became known that the Nebraska delegation planned to withdraw the vice presidency candidacy of Governor Morehead. The delegation explained that the president had

PLEDGES POUR IN UPON MR. HUGHES

NEW YORK, June 15.—Pledges, promises and predictions continued to pour into the ears of Charles E. Hughes today from many republican leaders and from the rank and file of the party. So many callers crowded into the somewhat cramped temporary headquarters that the presidential nominee had very little time for conferences, but spent nearly the entire day welcoming visitors. Mr. Hughes reiterated today his determination not to comment upon political issues until his nomination which probably will be subsequent to July 4.

AMERICANISM PLANK MUST NOT BE MODIFIED

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, June 15.—Word from St. Louis that some democratic leaders favored modifying President Wilson's Americanism plank to make its denunciation of political activities by foreign born citizens less specific brought an emphatic declaration from the president late tonight that the president would not consent to such a change under any circumstances. The president's position was made unmistakably clear to his personal advisers over the telephone and telegraph.

As approved by the president the plank would charge a conspiracy on the part of some foreign born citizens to participate in politics and influence foreign and internal affairs in the interest of foreign government and would condemn any organization countenancing such a movement and any political party receiving benefit from it and failing to repudiate it. The plank is vigorously and emphatically phrased and the president is

NINE U. S. SOLDIERS ARE SHOT DOWN WHEN BANDITS RAID BORDER

ESCORT EDITORS OVER THE MEXICAN BORDER

LAREDO, Tex., June 15.—Thirty American residents of Laredo, mostly business men, this afternoon led Leo D. Walker, a Mexican and managing editor of "El Progreso," a Mexican newspaper published here, into Mexico at the point of a pistol and ordered him, under penalty of death, not to return to the United States. "El Progreso" recently contained an editorial abusing the United States government. The committee notified other attaches of "El Progreso" to cease publication immediately. Officers had not taken official cognizance of the action tonight.

DRAFT OF NOTE TO CARRANZA IS BEFORE WILSON

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] WASHINGTON, June 15.—Secretary Lansing's draft of the note which will refuse General Carranza's demand for withdrawal of American troops from Mexico, was laid before President Wilson for his approval today almost simultaneously with receipt of news of another border raid in which three American troops were killed. Punitive steps against those responsible for the new depredation were left to the discretion of the border commanders whose standing orders are to pursue into Mexico any hot trail they find. The development, however, was called to the attention of the de facto government, and will be one of the elements on which the administration, in its reply to Carranza will predicate its declaration that the time for withdrawal is not yet ripe because Mexican troops are not properly policing the border country.

Anti-American demonstrations throughout the republic, which also will back up this declaration, have worked, with the growing seriousness of economic conditions to produce such a grave situation that officials here fear a new internal upheaval soon and have taken further steps to protect Americans. An army transport is held in readiness at Galveston to proceed to Mexican ports for refugees, another has been ordered to the vicinity of the western Mexican coast, and the navy transport Hancock, now taking marines to Santo Domingo, will go from that port to Vera Cruz. (Continued on Page Five)

Three Are Slain and Six Wounded As Result of Latest Raid On American Territory By Mexican Bandits

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LAREDO, Texas, June 15.—Three American soldiers are dead and six are wounded as a result of the latest raid on American territory by Mexicans coming from the southern side of the Rio Grande early today. No civilians were injured, as the raid was primarily an attack on the border patrol at the little settlement of San Ignacio, forty miles southeast of Laredo.

Although successful in a measure, the raid was not wholly surprising to the American guard, which, in larger numbers than the Mexicans expected to find, saw in the bright moonlight the approach of the one hundred or more bandits to the rear of where Troop M of the Fourteenth cavalry was encamped, and where Troop I was but a short distance away. Both were under command of Major Alonzo Gray.

The Mexican toll was last reported as eight known dead, a number of wounded, and several captured. In addition, forty-two horses, once Mexican mounts, were captured. One Mexican who surrendered said, according to those who made him captive, that he was forced into the raid, and that his sentiments were not anti-American.

The Mexicans attacked Troop M, encamped near the town, firing the first shot at the sentry. At the sound of the firing Troop I, a few hundred yards up the river, rushed to the former troop's aid, and after a half hour of fighting, the Mexicans retreated along the American side of the Rio Grande, with the Americans in pursuit.

It was rumored, but not confirmed here tonight, that Mexican Consul Melquiades Garcia in Laredo had gone over to the Mexican side for safety, following the example of American Consul Garrett, who removed to the American side yesterday.

Chance for Clash

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, June 15.—One thousand Carranza soldiers, ordered to the border some days ago to reinforce the Carranza border patrol, are somewhere south of San Ygnacio, Texas, and should there be a third American punitive expedition into Mexico the two bodies of troops would clash, according to General Alfredo Ricaut, commander at Matamoros.

General Ricaut tonight notified American Consul Johnson of the position of these men, and the information was conveyed to General James Parker, commanding the Brownsville district.

Say Gavira Executed

EL PASO, Texas, June 15.—A report that Gavira had been executed. (Continued on Page Four)

NO SIGNS OF SLACKENING OF BIG OFFENSIVE

All Along Front Fresh Gains for Russians and Capture of 150,000 Prisoners Are Claimed By Petrograd Headquarters

The twelfth day of the Russian offensive against Austrian and German forces from Volhynia to Bukovina shows nowhere any signs of slackening. All along the front fresh gains for the Russian troops and the capture of thousands of additional prisoners and of guns, machine guns and war supplies are claimed by the Russians. The number of prisoners now exceeds 150,000.

While semi-official advices from Petrograd give a report that the Austrians have evacuated Czernowitz, capital of Bukovina, the latest official communication from Austrian headquarters says the troops of Emperor Francis Joseph are making a stand north and east of the city and both have repressed Russian attacks. In the drive westward from the region of Lutsk the Austrians are counter attacking or entrenching themselves in new positions for a stand against the Russians.

No report of gains of either side in Galicia in the region of Tarnopol have come through. Here apparently there is still a deadlock between the Russians and the Austrians and Germans.

On the German end of the northern front in Russia the Russians near Baranovichi attacked and carried German trenches, but later were forced to give them up under strong pressure by the Germans. Infantry attacks by the Germans have occurred along the Dvina river and in the lake region south of Dvinsk, but all of these were repulsed, according to Petrograd.

The French on the slopes south of Lemorthomme, northwest of Verdun have attacked and captured a German trench. The Germans are still violently bombarding the sectors of Thiaumont and Fort Souville, northeast of Verdun, probably preparatory to another infantry attack with the hope of a further advance toward the fortress. Only artillery activity is in progress on the remainder of the front in France and Belgium.

The fighting on the Austro-Italian line in Tyrol seemingly has died down in violence. Only artillery bombardment and small infantry engagements have been reported. To the east of Montefalco, which lies a short distance from the head of the Gulf of Trieste, the Italians have captured Austrian defenses.

Near Fehle on the Tigris river, the Turks have repulsed an attempt of (Continued on Page Four)

Luis de La Rosa Makes Good His Threat To Raid Border

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

SAN ANTONIO, June 15.—Luis de la Rosa today made good his threat to raid the border when one hundred of his men attacked a small detachment of the Fourteenth American cavalry, numbering about eighty men, at San Ignacio, forty miles southeast of Laredo. His action cost him eight men killed, several wounded and many horses and some equipment. The American loss was three killed and six wounded.

Major Alonzo Gray late today was using every man of his little command in a sweeping search of the country about San Ignacio for a "hot trail." If it is discovered, a third "punitive expedition" will enter Mexico, but at department headquarters General Funston and his staff have little hope that Major Gray will be able to get into touch with the band. By daylight this morning the attacking force had scattered like quail. The larger part retreated Mexico but some of them at least scattered along the brush-covered country on the American side.

The Americans fought from trenches into which they were ordered immediately after the attack began. When they moved out and began the offensive the Mexicans were gone.

The American dead are: Private Minaden, Troop M. Private Charles F. Flowers, Troop M. Private Edward Katanch, Troop M. The American wounded are: Privates Thomas H. Ewing and James E. Rouch, Troop I; Corporal William Oberlies, Privates William Minnette, Tony Havlina and Henry Matasoff of Troop M.

Major Gray reported that he had been in communication with a detachment of Carranza troops on the Mexican side of the river and that its officer commanding had informed him that his men already had run down and shot four of the bandits. Major Gray made no comment on the officer's statement.

The identity of the raiding party was established by the story of Vicente Dira, who entered the American camp several hours after the fight and announced that he had been a prisoner of the Mexicans.

The name of the raiders' leader has not been reported. From the body of one of the Mexicans papers were taken that indicated that he was Cruz Ruiz, a major in the Carranza army. Undue importance was not attached to this discovery by army officers, however, who believe it not improbable that Ruiz was carrying the papers more as souvenirs of the days when he was an officer in the government army than to show his authority now.

General Funston has not ordered more troops to reinforce Major Gray's command, but if he succeeds in finding a trail justifying him in crossing the international line in pursuit of the band, a supporting party will be sent forward immediately.

Eighteen Hundred Troops Now Pursuing The Yaquis

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

DOUGLAS, June 15.—Disposition of the new lines of the de facto Mexican army in Southern and Central Sonora was completed yesterday, and the Yaqui Indian drive was started today by eighteen hundred cavalrymen in five columns, according to a telegram from General P. Elias Calles to General Arnulfo Gomez at Agua Prieta today.

General Calles stated that within thirty days every hostile band of Indians would be driven from the state, either into Arizona on the north, or Chihuahua on the east of Sonora.

The towns in the Ures and Alamos districts have been connected by telephone to aid in the pursuit of the Indians. Two lines of infantry have been stationed across the country while the cavalry will sweep the country in between. Calles denied that his troops have had any fights with the Indians during the last two weeks.

Arrivals today from Mexico confirmed reports received here yesterday that bands of Yaquis are operating west of the town of Mocimena under the leadership of Huero (Whitey), a Mexican renegade. Fully twenty Mexicans, including women and children, are reported to have been tortured to death by Huero's immediate band.

A detachment of Mexican troops and Yaquis are reported to have fought indecisively for several hours near Huapac, last week. The casualties are unknown.